Broadway Comes to Prescott

Prescott, September 21st, 2009:

Musical theatre star Josée Boudreau will be coming to Prescott as the featured performer at a special St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival Dinner on Monday October 5th.

Shakespeare with Showtunes will take place in one of Prescott's historic riverside homes, originally built for the Wisser family and will include a champagne reception, a gourmet 5 course dinner and stylish entertainment featuring a selection of songs from the shows.

Currently appearing on stage in The Sound of Music, Boudreau will be singing some of her favourite Broadway melodies alongside members of the Impressions in Jazz Orchestra from Ottawa.

Said Boudreau, "The reputation of the St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival is becoming known across the country –when I was asked by Ian Farthing if I would be interested in performing for them, I jumped at the chance!"

Limited to 30 guests, this exclusive event is one of the festival's most prominent fundraising events during the year.

"This event is always a special experience" said Artistic Director Ian Farthing. "What a wonderful way to counter the onset of fall with the warmth of such high-class entertainment in an intimate, historic setting."

Shakespeare with Showtunes takes place on Monday October 5th at 6pm.
Tickets cost $250 (which includes a $200 tax receipt), available from the Festival office.

The St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival's 2010 season featuring Macbeth and Trouble on Dibble Street runs July 10 to August 14 at the Kinsmen Amphitheatre at Sandra S. Lawn Harbour in Prescott.
